

Your kind support is life saving. Thank you!

We would like to express our sincere thanks to all of our supporters, large and small. All of the work mentioned in both past and current newsletters is accomplished thanks to you. Your support is making the impossible happen.

Without any government operating subsidies, we care for injured birds year-round, educate the public as an environmental learning facility and eco-tourism attraction, and travel around Alberta to various special events for conservation presentations with our live birds. By doing all this work as a not-for-profit organization, and by sharing our work with as many people as possible, we hope to inspire many young minds that will make an even greater contribution towards our environment in the future. Thank you so very much for making this possible.
